

Symposium Title: "Scripture and Pluralism: The Study of the Bible in the Sectarian Worlds of the Middle Ages and Renaissance"

Andrew Gow, "Challenging the Protestant Paradigm: Bible Reading in Lay and Urban Contexts of the Later Middle Ages"

Sidney H. Griffith, "Arguing from Scripture: The Bible in the Christian/Muslim Encounter in the Middle Ages"

Thomas J. Heffernan, "Dying for Christ: Sacred Scripture and Martyrdom. The Role of the Bible in Constructing the Cult of the Martyrs"

E. Ann Matter, "Religious Dissidence and the Bible in Sixteenth-Century Italy: The Savonarolan Bible of Lucia Brocadelli da Narni"

Michael A. Signer, "Consolation and Confrontation: The Prophetic Books in the Exegesis of the Victorines and the School of Rashi"

Lesley J. Smith, "Jews and Muslims in the Works of William of Auvergne"

Frans van Liere, "Compiler, Plagiarist, Judaizer, Hebraist? Andrew of Saint Victor in the Twelfth-Century Renaissance"