

Marco Manuscript Workshop
ENVISIONING KNOWLEDGE
February 3 – 4, 2017
Marco Institute for Medieval and Renaissance Studies
The University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Schedule

Sessions will be held in the Great Room of the UT International House

Friday, February 3

- 8:30 am Registration
- 9:30 Tara Welch (University of Kansas): “Valerius Maximus’ Facta et Dicta Memorabilia”
- 10:45 coffee break
- 11:00 Rachel McNellis (Case Western Reserve): “Identity Revealed: Cosmological Truths Embedded in the Ars Subtilior Picture Pieces”
- 12:30 pm Lunch – International House Community Room
- 2:00 Alexandra Reider (Yale University): “Mapping Languages in the Eadwine Psalter”
- 3:15 coffee break
- 3:30 Ilya Dines (Library of Congress): “Medieval Bestiaries of the H Family”
- 6:00 Reception – Copper Cellar Restaurant, 1807 Cumberland Ave. (cash bar)
- 7:00 Dinner – Copper Cellar Restaurant (rsvp to marco@utk.edu)

Saturday, February 4

- 9:30 am Laine Doggett (St. Mary’s College of Maryland): “Beyond Intertextuality: Changing One’s Story in the Prologue of The Romance of the Pear (MS Paris, BnF 2186)”
- 10:45 coffee break
- 11:00 Matthew Davis (McMaster University): “Lydgate Verses in Long Melford”
- 12:30 pm lunch – Hopecote Guest House, 1820 Melrose Ave.
- 2:00 Alistair Maeer (Texas Wesleyan University): “An Empire’s Worth of Curiosity: Envisioning Edward Barlow’s English Maritime World, 1659-1703”
- 3:15 coffee break
- 3:30 Katherine Walker (University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill): “Early Modern English Almanacs 1500-1700”

(dinner open)