

USAGE GUIDELINES

"A book of [the Abbey of] SS Mary and Nicholas of Arnstein: If anyone steals it: may he die, may he be roasted in a frying pan, may the falling sickness and fever attack him, and may he be rotated and hanged. Amen."

Arnstein Bible, Germany, c. 1172 (Harley MS 2798, f. 235v)

*L*iter sancte marie sancti q̄ Ayrolai in Arntem. Quem si quis abtulerit
Horte moriatur in cartagine coqui atur caducus morbus inter eum et febres. et rotatur et suspendatur Am̄.

COMPUTERS & SCANNER:

GENERAL READING ROOM RULES:

- ✓ A UT Net ID and password are required to log into the Reading Room computers. Log out/shut down the machine when your session has ended.
- ✓ Files saved to the desktop will be deleted upon logout. Use your individual UT-sponsored H-drive or a personal flash drive to save files.
- ✓ As a courtesy to other visitors, if someone is waiting please limit use of the computers and scanner to no more than 30 minutes.

- ✓ This is a non-circulating library. Please return books to their correct place on the shelf when you are done with them. Do not take books from the Reading Room without permission.
- ✓ Food is not permitted in the Riggsby Reading Room. Drinks are allowed provided they have a secure lid.
- ✓ Please use the blue bin only for paper recycling. Trash should be deposited in the bins down the hall.